DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 9-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Claim 9 recites the limitation "the adjacent retaining portions " in line 6 and "the adjacent function portions" in line 8. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claims. Other claims 10-16 depend on Claim 9.
5. Claim 17 recites the limitation "the electrical unit " in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Other claims 18-20 depend on Claim 17.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 9-20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Iwai Shiro of Honda Access Corp (JP 2001-155801).

Shiro (Figures 18-26) shows an electrical equipment unit protection device comprising an electrical equipment unit with a plurality of adjacent function portions 4 connected together by wires 104 and a design portion 5 attached to the function portions, an electrical unit holder with adjacent retaining portions 2 connected by an elastic interconnecting portion 103 to hold the adjacent function portions a predetermined distance apart from each other. The electrical equipment unit is a lamp unit 3 with bulbs and bulb covers 5 which open a side opposite to a side where the wires are mounted. The function portion has a guide portion (not numbered) which engages a portion 64 of the bulb cover.

Conclusion
